CASE STUDY

October 2008

Oxford Road, Manchester

Client: Sanguine Hospitality Ltd.

Location: Manchester

HOW Planning has secured permission for a 147 bed Express by Holiday Inn Hotel on Oxford Road in Manchester on behalf of Sanguine Hospitality Ltd. Designed by Stephenson Bell Architects, the proposals will be located opposite the BBC's North West studios.

Details

The scheme includes new ground floor retail provision and a stylish lower ground reception area, with views overlooking the River Medlock. The proposals include the demolition of the existing building and the construction of a stunning new leisure development which will result in wider environmental improvements.
