CASE STUDY

October 2010

New Waitrose store

Client: John Lewis Partnership

Location: Chester

HOW Planning has been instructed by the leading food retailer, Waitrose to advise on plans for its new 'full offer' store in Chester.

Waitrose, part of the John Lewis Partnership intends to build a new store on the site of the Boughton Retail Centre and has appointed HOW Planning to put together proposals for the re-development of the site.

HOW will be working with Broadway Malyan Architects, who have been appointed to develop the plans, and Cheshire West and Chester Council to ensure the scheme fits in with the wider plans for Chester.
